FEED SACKS

Enjoy a part of the past with our nostalgic feed sack line. Muslin sacks were a common sight in the feed and general stores in the early part of the century. When the sacks were emptied the fabric was kept for making clothing, pillows, curtains or to give gifts in.

Today we use antique presses that were used to print feed & flour sacks. We print our design on 100% cotton muslin fabric similar to the designs of the early days. Because of this process some imperfections may exist. Approximate 7" x 12", some fading and shrinkage may occur when washed normal.
